*Students are strongly recommended to submit documents as early as possible.

VIII. ACCEPTED STUDENTS

All accepted students for KU Exchange / Visiting Student Program:

- A. Will receive an acceptance packet containing information necessary to arrive at KU. Exchange students will receive their packets from their study abroad advisors. Visiting students will receive them by mail.
- B. Must apply for a D-2-6 or D-2-8 visa at the nearest Korean Embassy or Korean Consulate General in your home country. Exchange students must apply for a D-2-6 visa, and visiting students must apply for a D-2-8 visa. You cannot apply for your visa after arriving in Korea!

[IMPORTANT]

- The D-2 visa is for students seeking higher education in Korea. The visa is further categorized by type: D-2-2 for undergraduate programs, D-2-3 for master's programs, D-2-4 for doctoral programs, D-2-6 for exchange student programs, and D-2-8 for short-term programs.
- It is extremely important to prepare relevant documents for the specific type of visa you are applying for.
- The application process and issuance may take several weeks. Students are strongly advised to proceed with their application as early as possible.
- KU does not guarantee visa issuance for program participants. Korean embassies or consulate generals overseas have the final authority to issue a visa.
- Please contact the nearest Korean embassy or consulate general in advance to avoid any confusion before applying for your visa.

- C. Have to arrange flights to Seoul, Korea.

[NOTES]

- Students should book their flights after receiving the acceptance package from KU. They should pay for the flights upon receiving the visa.
- Students must arrive before the welcome orientation.
- All dormitory applicants must arrange their arrival according to the check-in period. They should arrive during daytime.

- D. Have to submit the Arrival Information Form before departing their home country.

[NOTES]

- All students will receive the Arrival Information Form by email, and must submit the form with their confirmed flight schedule by January 26, 2018.
- The form will be used for the welcome orientation, dormitory check-in, and other programs offering assistance on the first day of arrival.
- KU does not offer airport pick-up. Students must arrange their transportation from the airport to Konkuk by themselves. KU will send out transportation-related information in January.

- E. Have to purchase the overseas health insurance which covers the duration of the program.

[NOTES]

- Students must purchase overseas health insurance in their home country prior to departure.
